Presidential Scavenger Hunt

Scavenge your home, school, and community for the following campaign materials. (If you can't find originals, photocopies will be accepted).

Ready, Set, Go . . . Find:

_____ An article about the Democratic candidate for President.

_____ An article about the Republican candidate for President.

_____ An article about a third party candidate for President.

_____ A political cartoon about the presidential race.

_____ Results from a recent presidential poll.

In addition, please complete the following activities:

_____ Based on the items you've collected, who would you vote for? On a piece of paper, identify your choice and give reasons why he/she is the right person for the job.

_____ Complete the attached "If I Were President . . ." exercise.

_____ Complete the attached "Presidential Candidates Matrix."

Collect all of the above items in an envelope or folder and then display them all on a poster board or large piece of construction paper. Neatness counts, so please use scissors for cutting. Good luck.

Bonus item: Find an original piece of campaign memorabilia (bumper sticker, button, sign, etc.) to include with your display.
